Rachel Riggs (UK/AUS) is a multi media artist exploring the superimposition of discarded fragments, amplified by reclaiming what nature and human kind discard.

By drawing on my background in puppetry & children's theatre, I create story with visual art works in mixed media. Derived from fairy tale imagery, folklore, animism and spirit of place, my work is created within the liminal space, instinctive and collaborative.

Using traditional creative methods fused with contemporary practice, I develop and facilitate educational and family engagement arts programmes for the 21st Century, in theatres, art centres, community places, museums, schools and art galleries
